The high rate of mortality in Amritsar, Cawnpore, Ahmedabad, Jhansi and Broach was due mainly to fevers and respiratory diseases; in Saugor, Nagpur City, Nagpur Civil Station, Panipat, Gorakhpur and Nadiad due to fevers; in Srivilliputtur, Benares and Sambhal due to "All other causes" and in Hathras due to respiratory diseases alone.

In 146 towns there were 62 deaths from cholera, 38 from small-pox and 4 from plague. Of the deaths from cholera, Ferozepur recorded (14), Kasur (6) and Virdhunagar (5). Of the deaths from small-pox, Calcutta recorded (8).

REMARKS.

During the week ending the 17th October 1936, the number of deaths recorded in 155 towns with a population of 30,000 and over and with an aggregate population of 14,230,729, amounted to 7,205 which gave an annual rate of 27 per thousand of the aggregate population.

Births in an equal number of towns amounted to 12,523 which gave an annual rate of 46 per mille of the aggregate population.

The following towns returned a death rate of over 50 per thousand of their population:—Khurja (83), Akola (63), Hathras (61), Sialkot and Saharanpur (59) each and Saugor (56). The high rate of mortality in Khurja, Hathras, Saugor and Saharanpur was chiefly due to relapsing fever; in Akola and Sialkot due to fevers alone.

In 155 towns there were 47 deaths from cholera, 6 from small-pox and 10 from plague. Of the deaths from Cholera Palamcottah recorded 18 and Khurja 11. Of the deaths from plague Sholapur recorded 4.

Public Health Commissioner with the Government of India.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

IMPERIAL COUNCIL OF AGRICULTURAL RESEARCH DEPARTMENT.

RESOLUTION.

New Delhi, the 3rd December 1936.

The Indian Sugar Committee of 1920 recommended inter alia the establishment of a Central Research Institute as necessary for the proper development of the sugar industry in this country. The necessity for such an institute has been greatly emphasised since the date of the Report by the rapid expansion of the industry during the past few years.

2. The Government of India have accepted the recommendation of the Sugar Committee and have started with effect from 1st October 1936, for a period of five years the Imperial Institute of Sugar Technology at Cawnpore. The venue of the Institute was chosen after careful consideration. A Sugar Section has been maintained at the Harcourt Butler Technological Institute under the supervision of the Sugar Technologist for the past five years and it has now been decided to take over with the concurrence of the Government of the United Provinces the Sugar Section of the Harcourt Butler Technological Institute and develop it into the Imperial Institute of Sugar Technology. Besides the facilities of an up-to-date building available for the Research Institute, Cawnpore is the principal sugar market in India and is situated between the two main sugarcane belts in the west of the United Provinces and in the East of the United Provinces and the Province of Bihar.

3. It is intended that the Institute should undertake research on—

(a) Problems of Sugar Technology in general and those of the sugar factories in India in particular;

(b) The utilisation of the by-products of the industry;

(c) Detailed testing of new varieties of cane under factory conditions; and

(d) General problems of sugar engineering and chemistry.

The institute is also to provide adequate facilities for the training of students in all branches of Sugar Technology and to arrange for short refresher courses for men already employed in the industry. It will also be responsible for the collection, tabulation and analysis of scientific control returns from factories and making the results of detailed study of these returns available to factories in the shape of technical reports. The institute is, in other words, intended to furnish assistance of a scientific and technical nature to all factories which may need it. Besides carrying on research on fundamental problems of sugar chemistry it will act as the medium for harmonising the latest developments in the sugar industry abroad with the conditions prevailing in this country.

4. The administration of the Institute will be vested in the Imperial Council of Agricultural Research Department, Government of India. Mr. R. C. Srivastava, the present Sugar Technologist to the Imperial Council of Agricultural Research, will be the first Director of the Institute.

A representative body has been constituted to advise from time to time on the problems to be invested at the Institute and to undertake periodic reviews of its activities.

5. The estimated cost of the Imperial Institute of Sugar Technology is about Rs. 15·87 lakhs including Rs. 14·37 lakhs as recurring grant for a period of five years and Rs. 1·50 lakhs as capital grant, the entire cost being met out of the general revenues. Against this expenditure receipts aggregating Rs. 2,25,000 are anticipated during five years. The net cost to the Central Government will therefore be in the neighbourhood of Rs. 14 lakhs over a period of five years including both non-recurring and recurring expenditure, which the Government of India have, subject to the vote of the Legislature, agreed to defray.

6. The Institute will be constituted as a subordinate office of the Imperial Council of Agricultural Research Department and will be subject to the same financial and administrative control as other subordinate offices of the Government of India. It has been established with effect from the 1st October 1936, and located at the Sir Harcourt Butler Technological Institute Buildings at Cawnpore, which have been placed at the disposal of the Government of India by the United Provinces Government.

ORDERED that a copy of the Resolution be communicated to all Local Governments and Administrations, the Director, Imperial Institute of Sugar Technology, and all Departments of the Government of India including the Financial Adviser, Military Finance and the Reforms Office.

ORDERED also that the Resolution be published in the Supplement to the Gazette of India for general information.
